PEDRONCELLI PORTFOLIO: CORE FOUR

Committed to High Quality Dry Creek Valley Estate Wines Made for Food and Family

We found this grape to be perfect for the soil, sun and place—Dry Creek Valley. It captures the grassy and the tropical fruit notes. Like a duet, it balances the essence of Sauvignon Blanc, bright and captivating.

The first wines we made were blends of estate fruit, they truly reflected the personality of our vineyards. Classico hearkens back to that time and is a distinctively classic wine for this time.

The Pedroncelli house is founded on Zinfandel. Estate vineyards, from 10 to 110 years old, are the foundation along with Petite Sirah. Made in a bold style of berry and spice.

Pedroncelli was the first to plant Cabernet Sauvignon in Dry Creek Valley. It is a blend of brethren estate grown Bordeaux varieties and features layers of striking flavors and great character.
