CALIFORNIA ZINFANDEL: THE OUTSTANDING 2022 AND 2023 VINTAGES
DELIVER DIVERSE STYLES FROM CONTRASTING GROWING SEASONS

By Tim Fish

"...I've covered 20 vintages of Zin for Wine Spectator and I've been drinking it a lot longer than that. Italian immigrants grew and vinified Zinfandel during the mid-19th century because it reminded them of the hearty reds of home. It is one of California's most underappreciated wines, and from my perspective it has never been better. That's my analysis after reviewing nearly 175 Zinfandels in blind tastings at our Napa office."

"Consumers can always depend on Zinfandel to provide good value, and this year five wines stand out. (Among them) Pedroncelli Zinfandel Dry Creek Valley Mother Clone 2022 (92 Points, $24), supple and brambly, offers raspberry and licorice notes."
